

A PEI Forum on NJ Secondary Issues

New Jersey is considering major changes in high school graduation requirements, assessment policy and secondary reform, including ending the SRA, adopting the American Diploma Project and implementing the Abbott Secondary Education Initiative. What are the stakes and what are the options? How can we raise expectations and opportunities for all students without raising dropout rates? Join a conversation on proposals that will affect every middle school and high school in our state.

Thursday, Nov. 1 2007
Paul Robeson Center
Rutgers Newark

Presenters will include:

From the NJ Dept. of Education
Commissioner Lucille Davy
Deputy Commissioner Willa Spicer
Assistant Commissioner Jay Doolan

Co-authors of the recent report:
NJ's Special Review Assessment: Loophole or Lifeline?
Dr. Michelle Fine, CUNY Grad Center
Mary Bennett, Executive Director Project GRAD, Newark
Stan Karp, Secondary Reform Project, Education Law Center

Moderator: Fred Frelow, Director of Early College Initiatives at the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation

For info/registration contact: rupei@rci.rutgers.edu